THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Every seat for the Joe Jefferson performance of "Rip Van Winkle" in Lexington to-night is sold, even to chairs in the orchestra pit. The musicians will be placed behind the scenes.

Sir Henry Irving and Miss Ellen Terry will play "Robespierre" on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights during their engagement next week at the Grand, in Cincinnati. "The Merchant of Venice" will be given Friday night, and at the Saturday matinee Irving appears in "Waterloo" and Miss Terry in "The Amber Heart" and at night Irving appears in "Waterloo" and "The Bells." The prices will be $3, $2.50, $2, $1 and 50 cents.

"THE LITTLE MINISTER."

There is not a more charming and chaste play now being presented than "The Little Minister." It is a dramatization of J. M. Barrie's famous novel, and is a play without a villain, without tears, without swords or pistols, and has a charm that makes it linger as a pleasant memory. The love story of "Lady Babbie" and the quaintly humorous characters of the village of Thrums—the twin charms of the book—are delightfully represented in the play.

"The Little Minister" will be presented by Mr. Charles Frohman's company of capable actors, which includes four members of the original cast, we are told. "The Little Minister" has played to large business since leaving New York, and the Grand will no doubt contain a large and fashionable audience to-night.

Miss Grace Heyer, who is said to be Mr. Frohman's youngest star, will play "Lady Babbie," and the other parts are well cast. Mr. Giles Shine, who was a Paris favorite before the Grand was built, is a member of the company.

Reserved seats are on sale at Boardman's. Persons who fail to see "The Little Minister" will miss the prettiest play of the season.
